

King Caesar House

Wednesday, November 22, 2000

Duxbury Clipper

The King Caesar House will be decorated for the Christmas holiday.

King Caesar House Presents "Duxbury Ships Come Sailing In"

The theme for the Duxbury Rural & Historical Society's King Caesar Christmas House Tour is "Duxbury Ships Come Sailing In." The maritime theme was chosen in keeping with the Society's recent exploration of new information regarding the shipbuilding era in Duxbury.

The many volunteers who are decorating for the event include a group from the Duxbury Bay Maritime School, who will decorate King Caesar's library. DR&HS volunteers will decorate 12 other rooms, entrances and hallways in 19th century nautical themes, incorporating greens, local flora, and historical artifacts. The holiday splendor that results from this effort will transport one to the days of tall ships and sea captains.

The house will be open to the public from Friday, Dec. 8 through Sunday, Dec. 10. Hours are — Dec. 8: 12-8 pm; Dec. 9 and 10: 12-4 pm.

Tickets for the house tour will be available at the door and cost $10 ($8 for senior citizens). Groups of 10 or more may make reservations for a private tour of the house being scheduled for Monday, Dec. 11 through Thursday, Dec. 14. To RSVP a group tour call 934-6106.